A Correction.

Several weeks since an item appeared in Several veeks since an item appeared in the Glenwood Criterion, ard was espied or mention made of it in the Journal and Dem-crat of Kirksville, which reflected injustly on Miss Lucy J. Hawkins, of this place, as me-dium for independent slate writing. The fol-lowing letters from 1 arties present on the oc-casion sufficiently disproves the truthfulness of the Criterion, in its statement in regard to the matter.

MR. LEAVITT'S STATEMENT.

I am asked to say what I and my wife know tain asked to say what I am my what was about the statement in the Criterion in regard to Miss Dabney putting her hand into the eabinet. She did no go near enough to put her hand anywhere near where the medium (Miss Hawkins.) was sitting. I state this from my own knowledge, for I was sitting very close. My wife can also make the same statement with the same certainty. F. A. LEAVITT.

A. P. BEEMAN'S STATEMENT.

In justice to Miss Hawkins, medium from Kirksville, I will say, that one of the girls did not take hold of the medium while in the cabinet as stated in the tilenwood Criterion cabinet as stated in the Glenwood Criteric Isat in circle next cabinet and was in pe tion to see what occured, and also state furth er that James Shepherd did not demand his money back, but was asked if he wanted it and said he did or words to that effect. A. P. BEEMAN.

The Uriterion has been asked to correct its false statement in regard to the reflair but so far has failed to do so. Bimple justice to Miss Hawkins demands this much, as it reflected seriossly on her houesty and integrity, and was not based on truth or justice.
